We had a lovely final scripture assembly for the students on Monday afternoon which concluded with a piece of cake as a treat from our scripture teachers. Tuesday saw the decline in students for the week as many of our Stage 3 kids headed off for Fraser Island. This morning saw another mob head off for Midginbil Hill for an exciting few days. Tomorrow sees our Stage 1s heading for an exciting few days.

The final P&C meeting will be on today at 5:30pm. I have my youngest son’s presentation and performance evening on so will unfortunately have to miss this one. Mal and Leon will be attending with a brief look at where we’re heading with our reward system changes. Remember this will be more fully explained in next week’s newsletter and an information sharing session after school next Wednesday, 18 December.

Next Monday, 16 December will see all students back on deck for their final 3 days of school. Our final awards assembly will be this morning in the High School Hall, everyone is welcome to attend and share this final moment of celebration of our children’s efforts.

Wednesday, 18 December is the students last school day for this year which I’m led to believe ends with a Year 6 water fight, I have my pistol ready!!!

Teachers finish work on Friday, 20 December, with the last 2 days as staff development.

Thanks Drew

Ben Davies, Taryn Fields and Bec Mitchell will also remain with us for what we at this stage anticipate to be the whole year thus providing stability and consistency for their students. All other permanent teachers will remain in place for 2014.

The P & C AGM will be held on Thursday, 13 February, 2014. One of the topics to be discussed is the School Fete which is to be held on Friday, 28 March. A massive thank you to all helpers, thanks for a fabulous 2013 and looking forward to a great 2014.
