Welcome back to what looks like another exciting Term.

Principal Stars
A week and a half in already and things are going well. We had a great assembly on Monday which was run well by the students and the students in the audience did a great job too.

We, as are all schools, not perfect and we have incidents both small and large to deal with as we move through our school Terms. We do always strive to be the best we can be, which is all anyone can ask.

All incidents are referred to our welfare system and nothing is acted upon rashly. We always investigate any incident including eyewitness reports not just those involved in the heat of the moment. This enables us to get a clear and accurate picture of what really went on before deciding on the appropriate response to any individual. We must remember that most, if not all kids are egocentric and are more so the younger they are. This means that when things don’t go their way they will feel they are the victim regardless of what really happened. Therefore the unbiased approach that we take examining the whole picture takes us to the fairest possible outcome for those involved.

Our first ever open football team has had a terrific start with their next game against Yamba Public School tomorrow, Thursday, 24 July. We are aiming for an 11:30am kick off so come along and cheer if you have the time and inclination.

Good luck to our Rugby League team who leave on Saturday night for their trip to Sydney. We are in Pool A along with Colo Vale PS, St Kieran’s, Manly Vale and Lethbridge Park PS. Thanks to all those parents who’ve supported this trip and have managed to make it succeed.

Consistent, appropriate and trusted behaviour are the keys to participating in activities outside the school environment. We now have four levels in our behavioural system, White, Green, Amber, Red and warning of and suspension level. Remember that it takes two weeks to go back a level as we strive for long term positive behaviours that students can sustain. Students that find themselves in Amber or Red at the time of an event are more than likely to miss out. They can however requalify by appropriate behaviour over a two week period that will move them back into more acceptable levels. If a child is suspended, they will miss out on any outside event occurring in the same Term.

Kyogle Quota International, via local Margaret King are collecting any child’s book in good condition that your children have out grown and will not read again. These books will be sent to New Guinea schools that currently lack almost any resources. The box is inside near the office which your child can drop their pre loved books into. They will be collected this Friday, 25 July. If you have a large amount of books that would be awkward for your child to carry in like a box full for instance Margaret is more than happy for you to drop them at her place 9 Groom St or ring her on 66322095 and she’ll pick them up.

Students will be learning and practicing in and outside the classroom Positive Behaviour for Learning (PBL) focuses each week, this weeks focus will be behaviour inside the classroom. Students will learn through content such as;
- demonstration of classroom rules
- the consequences of not following classroom rules
- discussing the processes for inappropriate behaviours
- discussing processes for appropriate behaviours

This will be developed through activities such as demonstrations, role play, scenarios and making posters relating to the focus of this week. This Term Friday of Week 9 will be cut off for gold awards.

Over the weekend of the 13 and 14 September a volunteers quilting day is being held at the KPS hall. The aim of the day is to make patchwork quilts that comfort children in need. The quilts will be sent to the Quilts4Kids organization in Lismore for distribution. Contributions of clean 100% cotton fabric and any other quilting supplies that you would like to donate can be left at the hall on Saturday, 2 August from 9am to 12 noon. The Kyogle Branch of Lions and Rotary Clubs have both given their support to this worthy cause.
